"Goodness Sakes!"

isn't that a lovely stove!" exclaimed a lady in our store a short time ago, as she paused in front of one of the Michigan Stove Co's latest pattern cook stoves, and proceeded to critically inspect the same. The examination was satisfactory in every particular. It always is. You make no mistake in buying the kind we handle. It's the poor kind you "burn your fingers" with.

The "Quick Meal,"

How about that? Have you one? Not many moons hence ere the kitchen will be sizzling with summer heat, and you will appreciate doubly a latest improved "Quick Meal" Gasoline Stove. We have them now. They sell wonderfully easy; may be gone soon, remember.

We keep Gas Pipe, Steam Fittings for Engines, and all goods in that line.

Local Department.

Hugh Harrison is home for a few days.

Both scarlet fever and diphtheria have appeared at South Haven.

Mrs. Guy Harrison is just recovering from an attack of malarial fever.

Miss Cora Clement started last Wednesday for a trip to the Pacific slope.

It is reported that the night cry of the owl is now "Too wet, too wet to woo."

Children's Day will be observed at the First Baptist church next Sunday evening.

J. Gillespie is dealing out the lacteal fluid by means of a new pump in his milk wagon.

The Bloomingdale teachers all intend to spend part of the summer at the Valparaiso Normal.

S. F. Master with the firm of Osborn & Mills at Kalamazoo, was in town yesterday on business.

Capt. Ed. Smith is again "on deck" and beginning to talk about his annual flitting to the sea-shore.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Anderson took a two days' vacation last week and spent the time with Kalamazoo friends.

The "Criticism" published in last week's issue should have been credited to our sister village of Lawrence.

Mrs. Hattie Stanebrook of Chicago is the guest of Mrs. Effie Johnson, and her husband was also here over Sunday.

The pupils of Lawton exhibited much patriotism on Decoration Day and nearly the entire school marched to the cemetery.

Mrs. H. C. Mowrey of Chicago is visiting at her father's in Hartford and was the guest of Miss Kittie Fitch yesterday.

Advertised letters: Charles Buck, Charley Cubitt, Frank Hoard, Margaret Scott or Proctor, Wm. Sherburne, O. F. Tyrrell.

We are indebted to Cadet Clark of West Point for an invitation to the graduating hop of the United States Corps of Cadets.

Married, in this village, by Rev. G. P. Linderman, May 25, 1892, Mr. George Farmer of Lawrence and Miss Alice Holmes of Arlington.

Dr. Dunning, whose extreme pallor of late has shown with what difficulty he kept about, is beginning to regain his usual ruddy countenance.

Dr. Whalen is in attendance at the Medical Association in Detroit, and Mrs. Whalen is spending the time with Battle Creek and Decatur friends.

A letter from Bay City reports Mrs. J. C. Dunning quite recovered from her recent illness and says the young couple are about to begin house-keeping.

Mrs. C. R. Avery and Will Fowler are both actively sympathizing with the children in their whooping-cough trials. Mr. Fowler is really having quite a serious attack.

Rumor has it that Mrs. Rhoda Hopkins has resigned her position in the M. E. choir; but we hope it will prove nothing permanent, as many enjoy her singing much.

The old saying, "If it rain on Easter, it will rain for seven weeks," seems to have been fully verified this year. Now that the seven weeks are ended, we shall hope for a change.

The Spiritualists and Liberalists of Southwestern Michigan will hold a grove meeting at Lake Cora on Sunday, June 19. There will be speaking at 10:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. by Mrs. Ada Sheehan of Cincinnati.

Last Friday evening about thirty young people gathered at the home of Miss Isabel Giles. Although the rain made them think of "Home, Sweet Home," it did not hinder them from having a very pleasant time.

Chas. Leech, formerly of this place, now of Chelsea, Michigan, and Miss Etta Crawford of Lawrence were married on last Sunday evening at the residence of Ed. Baldwin, by Rev. Mrs. Barton.

The Young Men's Republican Club will have a meeting at the Court House next Monday evening which will be addressed by some of the leading men of the county. Every one come and have a good rally.

Prof. O'Leary of Bangor will superintend the Hartford schools next year, and we are told that the members of the Bangor Board are kicking themselves all over for the dilatory measures that failed to secure him in season.

The Leader window displays an ingenious suspension bridge made of button hooks, spanning a realistic ravine, over which a train of cars is making its way, no doubt filled with a new consignment of goods for this enterprising firm.

It was Congressman Belknap who had a bunch of wild daisies placed on the grave of every Michigan man in Arlington National cemetery. It required two thousand clusters. All honor to him who thus honors the patriot dead.

Now that summer is really here, farmers and fruit-growers are drawing a sigh of relief over their escape from any blighting frosts, and if the bright June sunshine fills its usual engagements, there seems no doubt of a bounteous harvest for both.

The Wade Leroy Musical Comedy Company will appear at Longwells Opera House next Thursday evening June 9th, in the laughable hit of the season entitled "Squabbles." Price 25 and 35 cents; tickets now on sale at Longwell's store.

About twenty of our people attended the Yearly Meeting of Free Baptists at Gobleville, and all are enthusiastic over the good time they enjoyed. The attendance was so large as to require the throwing open of the church parlors to receive the audience.

We would respectfully call the attention of our subscribers to the fact that all obituaries, either prose or poetry, memorial resolutions, and cards of thanks, are inserted in the NORTHERNER at the uniform price of five cents per line of seven words.

All Christian young people are cordially invited to attend the Annual Convention of the Van Buren Co. C. E. Union to be held in Bangor, Friday, June 17, commencing at 2 p. m. Please notice the date, as by mistake this has been largely advertised as June 16.

The Allegan Gazette reports one of their citizens as engaged in the construction of an ark. We had just drawn a sigh of relief with intent to apply for one first-class passage, when we read that bed-bugs, snakes, mosquitos, suckers, the grip bacillus, politicians and editors would be excluded.

There will be a large meeting of the Spiritualists of Texas in Parsons' Grove on Sunday, June 12, at which the principal speaker will be Hon. L. V. Moulton of Grand Rapids. An entrance fee of ten cents will be collected, and a general invitation is extended to all Spiritualists of the county.

We are indebted to Colum Engle for a bottle of the Barnard Martinsville Artesian water and can testify that it tastes strong enough to cure every ailment mankind is heir to. Mr. Engle received great benefit during his winter's sojourn at Martinsville and reports some wonderful cures performed there.

The Hartford school closed last week and Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Sage will summer in Paw Paw, the former being one of the instructors for our Normal Institute. They were the recipients of a fine water set of Bohemian glass with silver tray, a testimonial of the love and appreciation of their high school pupils.

Chas. Dole of Northville, Vt., brother-in-law of G. E. Gilman, is expected here for a visit next week, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Fred Parker, the latter going from here to Superior to join her husband. Carl Dole who has been spending several weeks in Mrs. Jennie Averill's family, will go north with Mrs. Parker.

An exchange says that "masked hugging parties" are the latest fad in the church social line. It costs fifteen cents for every lady that hugs the man who is turned blindfolded into a room full of feminine beauty, and it is said to work well except when a man discovers that he has squandered fifteen cents to be hugged by his wife.

John Vanderbeet of Diamondale, who flaunted the rebel flag in the face of the marching veterans on Memorial day, received an immediate dismissal from the Lake Shore railroad and warning from the Boys in Blue that his presence in that community would not be tolerated. John found to his cost that no rebels need apply.

A program of the 33rd annual Commencement of Cooper Union in New York City shows that the silver medal given for the best work in designing was awarded to Miss May Tuttle of this place. We also learn that every design she has made this year has been selected for exhibition at the World's Fair, and we congratulate Miss May upon her great success. She will remain for another year's study in the art of designing.

When the special train of the Sioux City Young Men's Republican Club pulled into Minneapolis, a novel figure was in view on one of the coaches; it was a man dressed as Brother Jonathan, with red and white striped trousers, blue coat with brass buttons and swallow tails, and the traditional high white hat. When sixty of these white-shanked had alighted, they were marshalled by a Sioux City Senator dressed as Uncle Sam, and this original procession created quite a sensation as they marched to headquarters to the music of a brass band.

The great bicycle relay race from Grand Rapids to Detroit made in 16 hours and 13 minutes, attracted the notice of the entire athletic world, and together with the relay race from New York to Chicago, is calling attention to the fact that this country is several hundred years behind other countries in the matter of good roads.

Rev. Mrs. Barton leaves next week for a visit to Lima, N. Y., among friends whom she has not seen for thirty years. Her father was pastor of a church there for seven years, and Mrs. Barton has been invited to speak to her old friends from this pulpit. We can well realize that her visit will be filled with memories of mingled pleasure and pain.

The meeting last Thursday of the East and West Farmers' Club at the pleasant home of Fred and Grace Woodman fulfilled all the good times anticipated, and was a gala day in spite of the morning's deluge. A fine program was carried out, the musical part of which received a welcome addition from Messrs. Cummings and Salt, who were present as guests.

While Rev. G. P. Linderman was preaching a funeral sermon last Tuesday at Grand Lodge, Mich., the church was struck by a cyclone, smashing in windows, breaking plaster on the wall, and creating a panic in the audience which promised for a time to be very serious, but resulted only in the fainting of many and a genuine scare of nearly all who were present.

Harvey Hill, a six-year-old son of Jerome Hill, living just north of T. J. Chaffee's, on Monday evening accompanied his father to the pasture for the evening milking and, being barefooted, was bitten by a rattlesnake. His limb at once began swelling and ammonia was immediately applied and a hasty trip made to town for liquor. At last report, the boy was doing well.

Last week's issue of the Cassopolis Democrat gave unmistakable evidence that it approves of the NORTHERNER's literary style by appropriating our account of the Hathaway-Whitman wedding with only a change in the names of the high contracting parties and the omission of such particulars as did not fit the nuptials of Miss Addie Graham and Elsworth Phillips of Marcellus.

Unusually heavy losses have compelled the Michigan Mutual Benefit Association to apply to the commissioner of insurance at Lansing for the appointment of a receiver, that its business may be closed up, and arrangements have been made with the Covenant Mutual of Galesburg, Ill., where by the members of the M. M. B. A. will be re-insured without expense to them.

Owing to the fact that the upholstering of the seats is not yet completed, there will be no services at the Free Baptist church next Sunday, and as the quarterly meeting occurs at Waverly on the next Sabbath, the Children's Day services have been postponed until the last Sunday in June. This week's prayer meeting and the A. C. F. meeting will be held at Mrs. Barton's residence at the usual hour.

The Fancy Goods Graphic of New York City some time ago offered a prize of $50 for the best essay on "How to Conduct a Fancy Goods Store" and adopted the novel method of awarding it to the competitor who gained the largest number of votes from his "constituents." Jay Cumings, our Paw Paw Fancy Goods man, has the good luck to be the winner against twenty-four competing essayists, and on Monday received the announcement of his good fortune.

Mr. Jacob Hungerford died at his home in Waverly May 30, 1892, of Bright's disease. The funeral services were conducted by Elder Brooks of Paw Paw, and were held at the house. Mr. Hungerford was born August 22, 1861, in Oneida Co., N. Y., and came to Wayne, Cass Co., Mich., in 1837, where he resided until 1869 when he moved to Waverly. He leaves a wife and five children, four sons and a daughter, to mourn his loss.

The regular meeting of the Farmers' Association was held at Jason Woodman's on June 2, with a large attendance and a very merry time. One episode of the day was the sending of the following message to the other Club in session at Fred Woodman's:—The Executive committee of Antwerp and Paw Paw Farmers' Association to East and West Farmers' Club—The parent to its first-born—Greeting—"Let others come and others go, but we go on forever." From all reports, we think these Farmers' Clubs have more than their share of good times.

Miss Grace Maynard, eldest daughter of Dr. Henry C. Maynard of Hartford, suicided in Chicago on last Sunday night. She was living with her sister, Mrs. Belle Coleman, they having been engaged together in the millinery business, and the latter returned from the theatre to find Grace lying in bed, drenched in blood that had welled from a bullet hole in her right temple. A disapprobation in love some two years ago and another more recently, is thought to be the cause of the rash act. Miss Grace was an attractive and accomplished young lady, and her sudden death is a great blow to her friends.

The following tribute to one whose work is seldom truly appreciated is from the New York Reopier: "Lift your hat reverently when you pass the teacher of the primary school. She is the angel of the republic. She takes the bantling from the home nest, full of pouts and passions—an ungovernable little rogue whose own mother honestly admits that she sends him to school to get rid of him. This lady, who knows her business, takes a whole car-load of the little anarchists, one of whom, single-handed and alone, is more than a match for his parents, and at once puts them in a way of becoming useful and upright citizens. At what expense of toil, patience, and soul-weariness! Lift your hat to her!"
